

Memorial for a famous dancer

A copy of his dancing shoes in granite

The shoes was carved out from 3 sides in black granite, polished and painted.

First with a saw-blade, then with a core-drill and finally with a milling tool before the Stone Mason finished by hand.

